JOSH BILLINGS SAID...

"I luv the rooster for tu things Wun is the crow that iz in him, and the other is the Spurz he hez got to back up his crow with."

- It may be said in the language of "Josh Billings" that men and women
- Luv to buy personal comfort and decoration at "The Home of Honest Value" for
- tu things.
- Wun is that we blow our horn so that the people may know.
- The other is that we have got the stuff to back up our "horn blowin with."
- You can't buy better stuff in New England.
- You can't get better attention.
- You can't get better value for your money.
- You will have to rummage about among the brains of the country to find more "Horse Sense" than is done up in the sayings of "Josh Billings."

Andover Engineer in Panama.

Last evening's Transcript contained an account of the important work done by government engineers the past summer in connection with the Isthmian canal in Panama, being an attempt to solve the difficult problem of disposing of the surplus waters of the Chagres river. Andover people may be interested to know that one of the assistant engineers engaged in this work is Chas. L. Carpenter of this town, who joined the force in June and has been specially employed, with his party, in tracing the branches of the Chagres through the tropical wilderness, in the endeavor to find some place to conduct the overflow through or under the continental divide, and so to the Pacific ocean. Another exploring party is in charge of a son of Prof. Charles Anderson, now of Robert college, Constantinople, but thirty years ago a student in the Theological Seminary here and known to many in town, his wife being a daughter of Dr. Hamlin. Mr. Carpenter's letters speak favorably of the healthfulness of the Culebra region where he is at work (saying that there are fewer mosquitoes than on Andover Hill), and also of the luxurious quarters pro-built by the French engineers—more favorably than of the correctness of their maps of the Chagres tributaries!

Wedding.

FRASER—DELANEY.

John P. Fraser, a former resident of Ballardvale, and Miss Teresa J. Delaney of Lawrence, sister of Register of Deeds Thomas F. Delaney, were married Wednesday afternoon at 4.30 o'clock in St. Mary's church, Lawrence, the Rev. Fr. J. T. O'Reilly officiating.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white liberty satin cut en train, with Battenburg lace trimmings. She wore a bridal veil and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley.

Miss Mae B. Delaney of Natick, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and David F. Burns, of Ballardvale, was best man.

A reception was held at the bride's home, 14 Warren street. Caterer Tanner, of Haverhill, served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser will spend their honeymoon in New Brunswick.

They will be at home after December 1st, at 18 Warren street, Lawrence.

PICKELS—STEED.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Steed was the scene of a very pretty home wedding last Monday evening when their daughter, Miss Sadie L. Steed, and John T. Pickels of Lawrence, were united in marriage. The house was very prettily decorated with autumn leaves and potted plants. Rev. Augustus H. Fuller performed the ceremony under a beautiful arch of autumn leaves.

The bride was very handsomely gowned in white silk chiffon trimmed with pearls and lace and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Lizzie W. Steed, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and was very prettily attired in pale blue muslin and carried white pinks. Percy Pickels, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. Helen, a younger sister of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed in white muslin. Annette, the youngest sister of the bride, was ring bearer and was dressed in white muslin. Miss Annie Tschander presided at the piano and played the wedding march in a very artistic manner.

After the ceremony a reception was held and refreshments were served by Caterer Thomas Rhodes of Andover. The presents were costly and numerous, consisting of silver, china, glass and many useful and ornamental household articles. The happy couple left on the 9.37 train amid a shower of rice and the best wishes of their many friends on their wedding trip to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Pickels on their return will reside at 70 Crescent street, Lawrence.

Good Templars Meeting.

Ballardvale lodge No. 105 held a meeting of special interest in Good Templars hall last Monday evening, the occasion being an official visit of the District officers including District Chief Templar Johnson Greene of Haverhill, District Supt. of Juvenile Temples, Miss Margaret Boodle of Haverhill and William S. Bentley, Dist. Treas. of Lawrence. Large delegations from Longfellow lodge of Haverhill and Good Hope lodge of Lawrence were present.

An exceptionally interesting good of the order was rendered. The District Chief Templar gave a very encouraging report of the progress and growth of the Order in Essex county. Miss Boodle made a strong plea for the Juvenile Temples. Refreshments were served and a good social hour followed.

BOSTON STORE VICTIMS EXPECTED TO RECOVER.

Both of the victims of Saturday afternoon's accident at the Boston store were expected to recover. They were Miss Anna Well, daughter of Mrs. E. A. Well, of 206 Main street, and Earl Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Watts, who live in another tenement of the same house. Miss Well is 19 years old and is an attendant at the Johnson high school of that town. She came to Lawrence with the Watts boy.

Fortunately when the accident occurred the street in that vicinity was not crowded for one congregation of the crowds on the street was past before another reached that point. Had the street been crowded as is usually the case at that hour the list of victims might have been much larger. However there were several narrow escapes.

The section of the sign that fell, about one-third of it, was of great weight. One section had been removed to allow alteration in the brick work and the rest was to be subsequently taken down. The Well girl and the boy were below on the sidewalk when the wind caught the sign hurling it to the sidewalk. The sign hit the girl squarely and beat her down and she fell towards the store. The boy was struck on the head and fell toward the curbstone.

A crowd of hundreds was soon on the scene and the police and hospital ambulances were summoned.

Dr. Conroy of Andover picked the girl up and bore her to Bradshaw's drug store and together with Dr. Dixon of the hospital corps, assisted by Druggist Bradshaw and Inspector M. J. Murphy, gave her emergency treatment. The boy was taken into the Boston store and an attempt made to relieve him.

The girl suffered much pain from her injuries and was hysterical for some time after she reached the hospital. The boy was in a semi-conscious state. Examination showed that the boy's skull was fractured and an operation was performed during the night, after which he rested comfortably. Besides his fractured skull the boy was quite badly bruised in other parts.

Miss Well's head was badly cut up and she was hurt on her arms and body. The hospital officials gave out the information today that their condition was very favorable and they are resting very comfortably. No further or serious developments are looked for by the physicians in attendance. It is expected that both will be released from the hospital in the space of a couple weeks.

LOWELL TEXTILE SCHOOL OPENED.

Tuesday, opening day at the Lowell Textile school showed a large increase in registration over last year, and while no definite figures could be given out at this time, Principal William W. Crosby stated that there is every indication of a considerably larger school than last year. If all who apply should gain admission, the total number of students this year would certainly reach 1000 or more, and it is not improbable, according to the estimate of the principal and Secretary James T. Smith, that it may actually reach that figure in the day and evening classes.

There have been few changes in the teaching staff during the last year. In the engineering department, Mr. Olier having resigned, Mr. Charles H. Eames, a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and recently with Stone & Webster of Boston, has been appointed secretary and instructor in electrical engineering. In the power weaving department, Mr. Joseph Wilcox takes the place of Mr. Fred Hardy, resigned. Mr. Otis L. Humphrey has resigned, and Mr. S. E. Smith of Methuen has been promoted to the position of chief of the department of cotton spinning, his place as assistant in that department being filled by Mr. Arthur Wiley.

The working equipment of the school has been increased during the summer by two carloads of new machinery, from the Whitin Machine Works, Whitinsville, Mass., consisting of carding, combing, spinning and weaving machinery; also a new loom from the Draper company; a Jacquard head, from J. Battles & Co., Lawrence; and looms to go with the head, built at the Lowell Machine shop; a six gang winder from the Universal Winding Company, Providence; a die and bench for the finishing department, from Curtis & Marble of Worcester; wool scouring machinery, from C. G. Sargent Sons, Graniteville; woolen mule, from Johnson & Bassett, Worcester.

NOTICE

Having been informed by parties on the inside, that the prevailing prices on Chinese and Japanese Mattings are not likely to remain at their present comparatively low standard on account of the trouble in the Far East, we have made a large purchase of the same; one shipment of which has already reached us, the balance to follow as soon as delivery can be made. And we now offer for sale a good assortment in all grades, ranging in price from 12 1/2 cents per yard.

We also wish to state that having secured a good connection in carpet lines, we are prepared to take orders for carpeting at prices which cannot be discounted anywhere.

In addition to the above, we might say that we are in a better position than ever to handle all work connected with our regular business, such as Carpet Cleaning and Laying, Furniture Upholstering and Repairing, new awnings and old awnings repaired and put up, etc.

ANALYSIS OF CURRENT EVENTS

Classified, Explained, No Sensationalism or Partisanship

COMMERCE and INDUSTRY

Commercial.

Tobacco Stamp Case.

The Havana Tobacco company, known as the tobacco trust, appealed to the president to countermand the recent order of the treasury department by which little stamps inside the box are to take the place of the large red stamps which heretofore have been required on imported boxes. The independent manufacturers were pleased at the new ruling, as the big revenue stamps had been used virtually as an advertisement by the trust.

Last week the treasury department held up the order providing for a new cigar stamp and announced that all parties to the controversy would have further hearings.

Ocean Rates Advanced.

The local agents of the North German Lloyd Steamship company at Liverpool received instructions Sept. 20 to advance Atlantic steamer rates from $10 to $15. Next day the American line increased its steamer to $12.50 for Philadelphia and to $15 for Quebec. The White Star line increased its steamer to $15. All outgoing steamers at the ten dollar rate were crowded with steerage passengers.

Philadelphia's Great Hotel.

The new Bellevue-Stratford hotel, opposite the site of the old Bellevue, at Philadelphia, which is said to be the largest and finest hotel in the world, was opened to the public Sept. 20, with every one of its rooms engaged. Among the numerous novel features of this house one of the most interesting is the service of meals by dumbwaiter in any room. George C. Boldt, who owns the Waldorf-Astoria at New York, is proprietor of the new hotel.

Steel Products Scaled Down.

The Steel Billet association, which met at Pittsburgh Sept. 19, decided to cut the price of billets from $23 to $19.50, or 4 by 4, sheet bars and small billets from $24 to $21.50 and finished bars from $27 to $23.

Labor.

Accept the Open Shop.

After three weeks' dickering the blacksmiths employed by the New York Metal Trades association have signed an agreement on the "open shop" basis. The agreement provides that there shall be no sympathetic strikes and no discrimination against the men on account of affiliation with labor organizations and that the wages of each blacksmith shall be determined by his proficiency. The agreement affects 1,000 men and will last until July 31, 1905.

Gray to Succeed Hanna.

The special committee of the National Civic federation appointed to choose a chairman to succeed the late Senator Hanna has decided to recommend Judge George Gray of Delaware.

Dallas Messenger Strike.

Business at Dallas, Tex., has been seriously crippled by the strike of Western Union messenger boys. Offers to arbitrate the dispute were rejected by the telegraph officials, and the messengers were dismissed without chance of reinstatement.

Cincinnati Strike Riot.

The molders' strike at Cincinnati culminated in serious riots Sept. 22 between the strikers and the strike breakers, one of the former being shot and many others, including policemen, injured by missiles.

Industrial.

New Tin Method Successful.

A method of rolling and tinning forty gauge plates has been successfully used by the American Tin Plate company at Pittsburgh. It takes 182 of these plates to make an inch of thickness.

Lead Strike at Leadville.

A great body of lead carbonate is reported to have been uncovered at Leadville, Colo.

It is said to cover a distance of 1,100 feet and 150 feet through. This ore body is believed to be a continuation of the Old Dome shoot that gave Leadville its world-wide prestige in early days.

Farmers in the Van.

The editor of the American Agriculturist after a three months' tour of the country says that the American farmers' economic position, relatively speaking, is better than any other great body of the country's population and that the farmer is financially more independent than ever before in history. The editor further says that the presidential campaign is affecting business less than usual and that the election will be decided by the agricultural vote.

EDUCATIONAL

Against Part Time Classes.

Mayor McClellan of New York has written the board of education urging steps to relieve the congestion in the schools and proposing a plan of alternate play time and study hours for different classes to accommodate all.

Ohio Teachers' Federation.

A state organization of teachers on news lines is cutting a figure in Ohio as the school year opens. It is known as the Ohio Teachers' federation and has the following objects: "To make teaching a profession, recognized, protected and compensated. To remove the schools from politics. To create wholesome educational sentiment." It is composed largely of young and aggressive teachers.

Rhodes Men on the Way.

Forty-eight American beneficiaries of the Rhodes scholarships are expected to begin their first year at Oxford on Oct. 13. They come from every state and territory, and some of them are already on their way to the British seat of learning. The plan to have all of them go on the same ship did not find favor with some who feared the effect would be a certain clannishness among the American students. At the same time about twenty-five Rhodes scholars from various British colonies and five from Germany will begin courses at Oxford.

SOCIOLOGICAL

Chicago's Violent Deaths.

During the month of August 312 deaths by violence occurred at Chicago, of which forty-two were suicides and forty-eight were due to railway accidents.

Marrying Professional Women.

Although Mrs. Charlotte Perkins Gilman is recognized as the leading apostle of the economic independence of women, she is far from justifying the attitude of the bachelor maid who in a recent independent advocated the refusal of women to marry under existing conditions of child bearing and household drudgery. In the Woman's Journal Mrs. Gilman contends that it is a woman's highest duty to accept marriage and motherhood on condition that she be free to follow her profession, as the husband is, and contribute half toward the maintenance of their home. She says that if no man loves such a woman enough to marry her on those terms she is under no reproach for remaining single and the man stands "convicted of wanting a wageless housekeeper with marital duties included." She maintains that in dropping the enormous load of menial service woman should be ready with some better way of doing it. Finally Charlotte P. Gilman.

she concludes that "each happy wife and mother who is also serving society in special work does more to promote human happiness than a thousand negations."

Teaching City Cleanliness.

The University Settlement at New York has begun a movement to educate the masses of the lower east side to a direct interest in keeping their streets clean. All the Hebrew rabbis are to be enlisted, as well as the public school teachers, giving talks on the hygienic benefits of clean thoroughfares.

Art, Music, Letters

Charles Wagner's American Debut.

The popular Paris preacher, reformer and author, best known to the American public as the author of "The Simple Life," began his first visit to the United States last week for the avowed purpose of cultivating fraternal relations with liberal religious thinkers and workers on this side of the Atlantic and meeting his literary audience facing

Rev. Charles Wagner, to face. After being entertained at the home of John Wanamaker, near Philadelphia, and inspecting that city's points of historic interest he was the guest of the president, who has so signally honored his books. After attending the peace conference at Boston M. Wagner is to deliver a series of lectures in different parts of the country.

Professor Parker to Write Score.

Horatio W. Parker, the well known composer and head of the Yale Music school, is at work on the score of Margaret Anglin's play, "Eternal Feminine," which is to be brought out during the present season.

Marlowe-Sothern Opening.

The three year Shakespearean engagement of Julia Marlowe and E. H. Sothern was begun at the Illinois theater, Chicago, Sept. 19, with a production of "Romeo and Juliet," which made a decidedly favorable impression.

The Season's New Plays.

Among the more important new ferings of the American stage are:

W. H. Crane in the Americanized version of Moliere's Comedie Francaise success, "Business Is Business," at the Criterion theater, New York.

The German army satire, "Taps," by Beyerlein, which obtained the official disapproval of Emperor William last year, with Herbert Kellecey and Effie Shannon in the leading roles.

George Ade's "The College Widow," which is regarded by the critics as an advance over his former comedies.

Clyde Fitch's "The Coronet of an American Duchess."

Miscellaneous

Accidents.

Two men were killed in the outer yards of the Long Island railroad at Long Island City Sept. 18, when an incoming and outgoing train collided. The accident was due to a defective switch.

Four men were crushed to death by the falling of a slab of ore in a mine near Morristown, N. J., Sept. 20.

At Presidio, Tex., Sept. 20, 600 persons were rendered homeless by the overflow of the Rio Grande river, and many miles of crops have been destroyed.

Another fire swept the business section of Halifax, N. S., Sept. 19, with a property loss of $200,000.

A trolley car at Melrose, Mass., Sept. 21, containing thirty-two passengers, struck a box of dynamite which had fallen from an express wagon on to the track, the dynamite exploding and killing outright nine of the passengers, besides maiming many others.

A bolt of lightning during a storm which swept over Dallas, Tex., Sept. 21, struck an oil tank, causing an explosion and killing five men at work on the roof of the tank.

A special train hired by J. P. Morgan to convey himself and the archbishop of Canterbury's party from Bar Harbor to Washington collided with a milk train at East Brookfield, Mass., by reason of a misplaced switch. Both trains were wrecked and five persons were injured.

The pier of a steel bridge over Grand river, near Afton, Ark., fell Sept. 22, owing to faulty construction of foundation. Two men were killed and three fatally injured.

Deaths.

Prince Herbert Bismarck of Germany, once foreign minister, died at Friedrichshagen Sept. 18. He was fifty-five years old.

Chief Joseph of the Nez Perce Indian tribe, who was captured by General Miles after the wonderful campaign, of 1877 in defense of the Wallowa valley, died on the tribe's reservation near Spokane Sept. 22.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't eat and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. HICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

Reduced Prices on Slightly Used IVERS & POND PIANOS

We have a few desirable pianos of our own make that have had slight use in one way or another. We frequently loan new pianos for use at recitals or rent them to careful people; and sometimes have pianos returned from our dealers' warehouses. In many cases such slight use as the pianos have had is really an advantage, as the action and strings get thoroughly settled, and will wear and stand in tune better for it. Some of these can hardly be told from new. Easy payments; a list of our bargains in used pianos might interest you. Send for it.

THE ANDOVER TOWNSMAN ANDOVER, MASS.

 PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY THE ANDOVER PRESS, Limited
 JOHN N. COLE

 The offices of The Townsman are in Draper's Block

35 & 37 MAIN STREET

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Andover Post-Office.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1904.

The First Political Duty.

The Townsman cannot probably succeed in keeping the political convictions of its editor entirely covered up in the columns of the paper, but it is not meant that the Townsman shall be in any sense a party paper. Against any candidate of either party who shall be known to be notoriously unfit for an office it will always be, and it will do its utmost to secure such a candidate's defeat. It has done this in the past and the immediate future bids fair to furnish another opportunity for like service to good government.

But that phase of political work is not the subject for present consideration. The local political issue at just this time is not confined to party; it is the universal issue of many local men who ought to be voters being unqualified to vote. We have been surprised at the condition of things in this respect in a town where the highest order of intelligence is supposed to be so dominant. Here are the figures.

Upon the poll tax list, made up by the assessors, and supposed to contain the name of every man in town of voting age, there are 1715 names. Upon the official voting list made up by the registrars of voters, which contains the names of all qualified voters in the town, there are 1329 names. The difference between these two lists represents the number of citizens in Andover who from one cause or another are at present without the right to vote at the coming important election. We don't know how many are republicans or how many are democrats, but we do know that every one ought to be somewhere along the road to full citizenship in the town and the state and the nation.
 Adjoining 60 as the number of those in this list who are in one stage or another of naturalization, and 100 more who are young voters and new residents only waiting for the opportunity to become voters in Andover, there are left 240 men who through indifference, or because of other similar reasons, have no part in our government.

We submit to the thinking people of Andover that this is a serious situation.
 Serious because it shows such a disregard of the importance of the franchise, and serious because it is a condition in a community where ignorance cannot possibly excuse.

We believe that there is no more important work for our citizens to undertake, at this time when the mind is easily turned to things political, than to cut down this large difference between the assessed polls and registered voters. About as important a question as each of us can ask of new-comers to town, and of others whom we know not of definitely, is, "are you registered to vote in Andover?" There isn't any better missionary work for the cause of good government than that every voter can enlist in, than to help in making a full voting list for the coming election. A full vote always means a right result.

A Boys' Club Coming.

There is a great deal of encouragement in the splendid start which the people of North Andover have given to their "Boys' Club", to those who are working along very similar lines for the Andover boys. Thus far there hasn't been much of a boom to the movement here in Andover, but there have been many very encouraging gains and much progress made in the less than two years of effort. The discouraging feature has been the lack of interest of men of wealth in the movement, but notwithstanding that, there is much to show for the short time of work. Just at this season of the year the need of some facilities for interesting the boys during the winter months is pressing, and it looks as if the long felt hope cannot be realized for this year.

But the courage is good; the year's work has brought forth a much improved athletic field, and a better interest and larger enthusiasm among the boys themselves. The North Andover club starts off with a boom that cannot fail to reach Andover in due time. We may have fewer men of large wealth than our rich neighbor, but we are confident that no example so excellent as the one the North Andover men are setting will rest very long without having its effect upon our own public spirited citizens. There's a "Boys' Club" coming in Andover, and that very soon, and the foundations are already well laid in the new athletic field, and in the interest of the boys themselves in all the possibilities.

Editorial Cinders.

War will always draw a crowd, while peace plays to an empty house. For a recent example take the two caucuses this week. At the Democratic caucus where usually less than a dozen gather, a contest brought out nearly a hundred.
 At the Republican caucus where usually a hundred gather, a unanimity of feel-
 that number.

What about that waiting room in the Square? It was promised a year ago by the B. & N. management, and again last spring, and the selectmen should now insist on something definite. It is already getting pretty chilly to stand around out doors and wait for a car.

INSTALLED AS PASTOR

 J. Edgar Park Begins His Ministry at the West Church—Installation Services

The installation of Rev. J. Edgar Park as pastor of the West Parish church occurred in that church yesterday afternoon at 3.30. Delegates were present from all the Congregational churches in town and from Lawrence.

The meeting was called to order by Rev. William E. Wolcott of Lawrence.
 Rev. Frederic W. Greene, of Middletown, Conn., formerly pastor of the church,
 was chosen moderator; and Rev. J. H.
 Fuller, of Ballardvale, scribe.

The regular examination of the candidate was very satisfactory to the ordaining officers, and he was unanimously elected pastor of the church.

In the evening the installing service took place, and despite the inclemency of the weather, a large delegation was present to assist in the service and to enjoy the words of the several speakers who took part.

The moderator announced the meeting, and the scribe, Mr. Fuller, read the minutes of the afternoon meeting.

The sermon by Prof. J. W. Plafner of the Seminary was a scholarly and able discourse. He said that the installing service is but a milestone in church history. The unity of the church, whether the form of worship is the same or not, is what should be looked for. The form may be different, but the goal is the same.

Rev. Robert A. MacFadden, of Danvers, a former pastor of the West church, gave an address to the people, in which he instructed them in their duty toward the pastor as well as for themselves.

Rev. Frank R. Shipman, of the South church, extended the right hand of fellowship to the newly ordained pastor in a cordial manner.

The charge to the pastor by Rev. G.
 A. Andrews, of Holliston, was well delivered and to the point. He gave Mr.
 Park some good advice taken from his own life among the people, and hoped that he would live the life of a model Christian.

Miss Caroline J. Burt beautifully rendered a solo during the evening.

Following is the program:

Abbot Academy Notes.

Rev. George H. Hubbard of Haverhill gave an interesting address in Abbot hall, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. F. MacFarland were the guests of the school from Saturday until Monday afternoon. Mrs.
 MacFarland is a loyal graduate of Abbot, and it is due to her efforts that the Lecture Fund is forthcoming each year.
 from Alumnae who respond to her appeal for money for this purpose. She led the meeting of the Y. W. C. A., Saturday evening, and Monday morning, Mr.
 MacFarland, who is President of the Executive Government of the District of Columbia, aroused the patriotism of the school by his earnest and patriotic words upon the present presidential campaign, in which he set forth in a wholly unpartisan way the actual political situation, and the attitude of the United States as a world power towards foreign nations.

The hockey teams have had already two lessons from Miss Applebee, the English expert, who is soon going to Bryn Mawr to take charge of out of door athletics there.

Wedding.

LYNCH-SULLIVAN.

A very pretty and quiet wedding took place at St. Augustine's church on Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Katherine Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Sullivan of Red Spring road, and Michael Lynch of South Lawrence, were united in marriage by Rev. James McGowan, pastor of the church.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of a host of friends of the contracting parties besides many relatives.
 The bride was attended by her sister,
 Miss Margaret Sullivan, and the best man was Fred Welch of Lawrence. The bride was handsomely gowned in white muslin, trimmed with liberty silk and satin and carried bride's roses. Her bridesmaid wore a dress of white silk over green and carried pink roses.

As the bridal party entered the church Miss Annie Donovan, organist of the church, played a wedding march.

After the ceremony the guests returned to the house where a reception was held and a wedding supper served.
 Guests were present from Lawrence,
 Boston, Newport, and Lowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynch left town on the 9.30 train for Newport, R. I., where they will spend several days and will be at home after December 1st at 10 Woodland street, Lawrence. They were the recipients of numerous useful and ornamental presents, which attested to the love and respect in which they are held.

Seminary Chapel Vesper Services.

The new order for the vesper services announced last week went into effect last Sunday afternoon. The Academy students were massed in the front and body of the house, and the members of the faculties and friends took the pews immediately behind them. It was thus virtually the same audience as before, with merely the change in location, and with precedence given to the Academy.

Principal Stearns made a few remarks, indicating the motive and reasons for the change, and asking the co-operation and sympathy of the students. The remainder of the service, which necessarily underwent some changes from the old order, and may require others, went forward to a close precisely upon the half hour. The following expressions from two of our younger people in regard to these changes will interest many, and are here given:

"The proposed change seems to me very hopeful for those young P. A.'s.
 I have often been very sorry to see most of them leaving when the sacramental service was to begin. With good wishes for both Phillips and the Theological seminary, Very sincerely yours, WARREN F. DRAFER."

And also:
 "I most heartily approve these efforts, and think the changes are not retrograde, though they reminded me (and very pleasantly) of the old-time 'third service' in the Old Stone Academy, which was so fully attended that often there was not seating capacity in the building.
 Dr. Taylor was always present, and the officials of the Theological and the Academy Societies of Inquiry took charge alternate Sundays. They were earnest, helpful meetings, to all classes of old and young. I cannot recall definitely now, but I think they were continued till the building was burned. Very cordially and loyally for Phillips, theologically and academically, SARAH F. ABBOTT."

EVERYBODY'S MINSTRELS.

 Coming Show in the Town Hall Oct.
 24 and 25.

That's the name for it, because everybody ought to be interested. The new athletic field is the beneficiary and besides the good object, there is to be the incentive of a good show.

Mr. T. Frank Pratt is looking after it and a good sized chorus is to furnish the foundation for the program.

Everybody is asked to join the chorus, those who can sing, and particularly those who like to sing, and the first rehearsal comes in the town hall, on Monday evening, Oct. 3, at 7.30 o'clock. It is very important that those who are to take part should be present at the first rehearsal, for "well begun is half done."

Free Church Notes.

The Ladies' Benevolent society of the Free church will begin their winter's gatherings with a thank offering meeting of the foreign department at the parlour next Thursday evening.

Next Sunday will be observed as Rally Day at the Free church, with an appriate sermon by the pastor in the morning and by special exercises at the session of the Sunday school.

Rev. Wm. I. Minchin of Tewksbury is to speak on "Personal Impressions of Porto Rico" at the evening service of the Free church next Sunday.

The next meeting of the class in the study of Japan will be held at the home of Miss Alice Bell on Elm street.

Notice.

There will be a meeting of the Andover Athletic Association in the lower town hall on Tuesday evening of next week. It is hoped that all members will be present as plans will be laid out for the coming football season. Admittance to the hall will be gained through the Park street entrance.

Obituary.

AUGUSTUS E. BACHELDER.

For the past ten years our town has been enriched by the quiet presence of one whom many spoke of with especial fitness as "a gentleman of the Old School." Mr. Bachelder possessed a courtesy which charmed everyone who knew him. No one could come into his presence without being impressed by his sympathetic interest, ready and sincere, in the affairs of others, the cordiality of his manners, the genuine friendliness from which they sprang, and the unaffected simplicity and goodness which were the deep foundation of both manners and character. He dwelt daily in a high atmosphere of noble thoughts; and yet people of every walk in life could draw near to him as to one ever ready to understand the best that was in them. His figure, seen on the street, with its buoyancy of walk and dignity of bearing, was familiar to many who did not know the quiet, retiring man himself.

Augustus E. Bachelder was born in Portsmouth, N. H., Dec. 6, 1824. He came to Boston when twelve years old, and soon entered the employ of the firm which afterwards, when he had become a member of it, was well known as Palmer, Bachelder, & Co. They dealt in watches and jewelry, and, during the war, in military goods. Through his cordiality many a customer found business relations developing into friendship. His mercantile career was successful. But he had promised himself to retire from active business at the age of fifty, and he kept his promise. Unlike many retired business men, however, he was not vacant and restive. He was well-read, especially in history; he had artistic skill and success; he enjoyed farming, building, and the society of his friends. Until recently he lived in winter in Boston, and in summer in Boxford and in Manchester-by-the-Sea. Ten years ago he came to Andover and made his home at No. 9, Chestnut street, where he died of disease, Sept. 22. He was married in 1853 to Miss Lucy M. Palmer of Boston, who died in 1880, and in 1887 to Miss Eliza Wilkinson of Poughkeepsie, who survives him.

HELEN SHATTUCK.

Helen Shattuck, the 11 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Shattuck passed away at her home on Sunset Rock road on Saturday, after an illness of a few days with diphtheria. The little girl had been a patient sufferer but death's hand could not be stayed and she passed peacefully away.

The funeral was held on the day of death and interment was in Spring Grove cemetery.

Andover Girl Bridesmaid

Miss Rosemond M. Thompson of this town was one of the bridesmaids at the military wedding in Bloomfield, N. J., last Wednesday, of Miss Anne Judkins Mason and Lieut. Keith Sumner Gregory, Sixth United States Infantry. The bridesmaids were Miss Edith Burnham of Manchester, N. H.; Miss Nora Spaulding of New York; Miss Rosemond M. Thompson of Andover, and Miss Mabel Fordham of Scranton, Pa. Miss Kathryn Donaldson, a step-sister of the bride was a flower girl. The ushers were all officers in the regular army, and the decorations were in blue and gold, to carry out the military idea.

Much general interest was centered in the wedding from the fact that the bride is the second daughter of Lieut. John Sanford Mason, who was killed in the Sioux war of 1890-91, and the grand daughter of Maj.-Gen. E. O. C. Ord, United States Army and Brig.-Gen. John Sanford Mason. Her sister, Mrs. Kemper, who was formerly Miss Mercer Mason, was married in January, 1903, in East Orange.

Mrs. Kemper and Mrs. Gregory are both graduates of Abbot Academy. Mrs. Kemper with the class of '02 and Mrs. Gregory of '03. Both were very popular while here and held prominent places in their classes.

The Episcopal Convention.

To the Editor of the Townsman:

Dear Sir: As the newspapers for the coming three weeks will have references to the Meeting of the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in Boston, perhaps some readers of the Townsman who are not familiar with that Church may be interested in knowing something about the Convention.

Each Diocese in the Episcopal Church has a Diocesan Convention, meeting annually, and legislating on the affairs of its Diocese. Once in three years the General Convention meets, which is the Church's highest legislative body. It consists, like the legislative branch of the national government, of two Houses the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies. The latter is composed of four clergymen and four laymen from each Diocese throughout the United States. The Convention will hold its sessions for three weeks in Emmanuel church on Newbury street, after an opening service in Trinity church on Wednesday, Oct. 5. Admission to this service is by ticket only. The sessions of the House of Bishops are with closed doors. Those of the House of Deputies are open to the public. Among matters of general interest which will come before the Convention are the question of change of name of the Episcopal Church; the permissive use in public worship of other versions of the Bible besides the Authorized Version; the position to be taken by the Episcopal Church as to divorce and remarriage, and the report of the Committee previously appointed to seek united action with the other Churches in this matter; consideration of the establishment of ecclesiastical courts of appeal; and the provincial system; and the condition of the Episcopal Church's missions at home and abroad. Meetings of missionary societies and brotherhoods, a meeting in Trinity Church of the Sunday schools of the Diocese, social receptions, public and private, are among the unofficial events of the occasion. The Archbishop of Canterbury will be present, and will preach in Trinity church on Sunday morning, Oct. 9. A reception will be given him by the citizens of Boston in Faneuil Hall on Friday, Oct. 7, at which Col. Higginson will preside, and after addresses by several distinguished citizens, the Archbishop will reply.

One of the visiting bishops will preach each Sunday morning during the convention in Christ Church, Andover; on Sunday, Oct. 9, Rev. Arthur C. A. Hall, D. D., Bishop of Vermont; Oct. 16, Rt. Rev. Frederic W. Keator, D. D., Bishop of Olympia; Oct. 23, Rt. Rev. William M. McVieker, S. T. D., Bishop of Rhode Island. At the service on Sunday evenings I shall endeavor to give a brief sketch of what has been going on at the Convention during the preceding week. It is needless to say that those who are not members of the congregation of Christ church will be cordially welcomed at all these services.

SERIOUS SET BACK

Selectmen Believe it Unwise to Grant Request of Lawrence for Water

A serious set back has been given the project by which the city of Lawrence hoped to obtain an additional water supply from the town of Andover, the selectmen of the town having expressed the unanimous opinion that it would be unwise to grant the request.

It will be remembered that in response to a communication from the Lawrence Water board inquiring whether or not the town of Andover could supply the city of Lawrence with water, the Andover Board of Public Works replied that the board would be willing to furnish water not to exceed one million gallons a day, stipulating the price. The Lawrence city council accepted the terms of the Andover board.

When the transaction became public much indignation was expressed by Andover citizens. The legality of such a compact was doubted and in consequence Town Counsel W. S. Knox was asked to render an opinion. In his communication, Mr. Knox said: "If such a contract would be valid, it would have to be made by the selectmen and ratified at a legal meeting of the inhabitants of the town."

At a meeting of the Andover Board of Public Works, held Monday, the following letter was drawn up and sent to the Andover selectmen:

Andover, Mass., Sept. 26, 1904.

To the Board of Selectmen of Andover: Gentlemen:—We herewith submit a communication from a committee of the city of Lawrence in regard to allowing said city to connect with our water system and to furnish them a certain amount of water in case of emergency, also a communication from the Town Counsel in regard to said matter.

Respectfully yours,
BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
By F. G. Haynes, Sec'y.

The selectmen held a meeting after the receipt of the letter and framed the following reply, which, it is believed, ends the matter:

Andover, Mass., Sept. 26, 1904.

To the Board of Public Works, Andover, Mass.: Gentlemen:—We hereby acknowledge the receipt through your board of the communication from the committee of the city of Lawrence in regard to allowing said city to connect with our water system and to furnish water under certain conditions. It is the unanimous opinion of the board of selectmen that it would be unwise to grant said request.

Respectfully yours,
BOARD OF SELECTMEN,
S. H. Boutwell, Sec'y.

THREE PARTY CAUCUSES

Contest in Democratic Makes Large Attendance—
Republicans Make Unanimous Nomination—Less than Half Dozen Socialists Gather.

This has been caucus week and now all of the local machinery is in working order. The delegates named are as follows:

Democratic Caucus

One of the largest democratic caucuses ever held in Andover was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening.

The reason for the unusual attendance is attributed to the fact that a strong fight was being waged for the delegates to the Senatorial convention. Friends of Joseph J. Flynn and Dennis H. Finn the candidates, had been busy for some days previous to the caucus and it was through their untiring efforts that so many votes were polled. This was the only contest and Mr. Flynn won by a good margin of 48 votes.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman William C. Crowley who read the caucus call. A permanent chairman was then elected, John S. Stark accepting with Timothy Cullinane as secretary.

It was unanimously voted to use the check list and Daniel S. Collins, D. S. Burns and John Hurley were elected as checkers.

On a ye and nay vote the motion to ballot on each set of delegates separately was lost and but two ballots were used. A committee composed of Michael J. Crowley, William Doherty and Joseph Higgins was appointed to count the ballots and they reported as follows: Delegates in favor of Joseph J. Flynn, 68; in favor of Dennis H. Finn, 20. The result was greeted with cheers.

J. J. Daly, Timothy Mahoney, Martin McKee, William C. Crowley and John P. McDonald were appointed by the chair to retire and bring in a list of names for members of the town committee which were as follows: J. J. Daly, D. J. Moynihan, John F. McDonald, Richard Sherry, William C. Crowley. This committee was unanimously elected.

Following is the list of delegates:

State Convention—Unpledged, John S. Stark, Precinct 2.

Congressional—Unpledged, W. C. Crowley, Precinct 1.

County—Unpledged, J. J. Daly, Precinct 1, W. J. Doherty, Precinct 1, Joseph Higgins, Precinct 1.

Councillor—Unpledged, Fred S. Stark, Precinct 2, O. F. Caffrey, Precinct 2, W. J. Burns, Precinct 1.

Senatorial—Pledged to Joseph J. Flynn, J. F. McDonald, Precinct 1, J. S. Barrett, Precinct 1, D. F. Burns, Precinct 2.

Representative—Unpledged, M. J. Crowley, Precinct 1, L. J. Hannon, Precinct 1, D. A. Collins, Precinct 1, P. J. Hannon, Precinct 1, D. S. Burns, Precinct 1, W. H. Welch, Precinct 1.

Punchard School.

Pupils who are interested in the formation of a Current Topics club may give their names to Miss Austin. The club will probably meet one regular period a week, at some time to suit the convenience of the members.

Any members of the Senior or Junior classes who would like to join an extra class in Science, to study geology, may give their names to Mr. Low. The class, if formed, will meet twice a week.

Pupils of Punchard who wish to play tennis may make arrangements with Mr. Low for using the court of the Roger's Brook tennis club.

The annual business meeting of the Athletic association will be held soon. All members of the School are urged to join the association; the annual fee is twenty-five cents, which should be paid the treasurer, Edward Towne, '05.

CLASS OF '04.

Of last year's graduating class, three, Miss Findley, Miss Caldwell and Miss Lindsay, are taking post-graduate work in Punchard. Miss Carter has entered Lowell Normal school. Miss Eaton takes the course in the Emerson School of Oratory, Boston. Chester Farmer has entered Lowell Textile School. William Foster will study in the Boston Normal Art school. Miss White attends the Gregg Shorthand school, Boston. Walter Thompson is studying in the Boston College of Commerce. Miss Moulton has entered the Lawrence Commercial school. Harry Low goes to Cannon's Commercial school, Lawrence. Harry Davies will study in Boston University law school.

P. A. Football Schedule.

COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of the Townsman:

Dear Sir,—The long evenings are here again, the summer is past and the harvest nearly ended. A good book is a better companion than many young people imagine. Not long ago the statement was made by a clergyman that there was more reading today than fifty years ago. Perhaps he was right. Yet how few of our young men have read any book they could tell you about! How many of them have read the history of their country, or say the history of France or England! Carlyle's history of the French Revolution is as interesting as any yellow skinned dime novel. McCaul's history of England as a literary production abounds in passages of beauty. The biographies of men like Napoleon and Grant, the characters depicted by Dickens, Scott and Thackeray, not to mention Shakespeare, have no place in their thoughts; their powers of conversation are limited to the standing of the football teams. I am simply stating facts.

Having read two books lately a few remarks about what they said may interest your Scottish born readers, as well as the professors and teachers of our literary town. The two books are "The Simple Life," by Rev. Chas. Wagner, Paris, France, and "The House with the Green Shutters," by a Mr. Douglas, a Scotchman. Mr. Wagner in his "Simple Life" begins by telling about two men he passed on the street. One of these men was a beggar, worn out and almost in rags, the other man was riding in a carriage. The man in the carriage had led the simple life, the man in rags had not, this is the keynote of the little book. Mr. Wagner in the chapter on education says some trite and true things. The idea that a man has not to work after being educated is thoroughly shown to be false and he warns parents about giving a so called education to children which tends to make them despise their parents and at the same time teaches them to despise honest labor.

As understood by Mr. Wagner the successful scholar has been working hard all his school days and will have to continue to do so in any profession he may choose to enter if he is to be a success. Exactly contrary to what I heard a decent man say the other day, namely, that he was to educate his son so that he would not require to work.

Every chapter of "The Simple Life" gives evidence of the writer's knowledge of human nature and when he says that all the carpets and furniture in the world will not make a home without the simple life, he speaks the truth. "The Simple Life" will be a book when thousands of other books are forgotten.

"The House with the Green Shutters" is descriptive of Scottish life at its worst in a little town. Barrie gives us along with his hard, dry characters, good, God-fearing people. Ian McLaren even gives the dry cynic, Jamie Soutar, a warm heart. But Douglas in this story gives no one in it a heart. They are all mean, cynical, frigid, envious, and dry when they are not drunk. There is not even the redeeming virtue of a love story in it. The nearest approach to love is the almost imbecile mother's affection for a graceless ne'er-do-weel son. Like Shakespeare's "Hamlet" the "Green Shutters" ends in murder, to which is added whiskey, cancer, consumption and general corruption. The clergyman mentioned is a caricature of the poorest specimen of an established kirk minister. This book hits the Scottish people harder than "The Unspeakable Scot," so if you want to know about the worst kind of Scotch people read "The House with the Green Shutters."

Wedding.

FREDERICKSON—JOHNSON.
Peter Frederickson and Miss Bettie Johnson were married by Rev. F. E. Aster at his home in Lowell on last Saturday. Both were born in Sweden but have lived in Andover for many years, the former being a gardener.

It's not too early to begin to think about Christmas photographs. A good portrait makes a most acceptable gift.

If any members of your family are scattered to the four corners of the earth, you couldn't please them better at Christmas time, than to send them a photograph of yourself made at the Sherman Studio.

Don't wait—tomorrow never comes.

CRICKET

Andover 60; Lynn Wanderers 29.

The Andover Cricket club completed its season last Saturday afternoon by defeating the Lynn Wanderers on the latter's crease by a score of 60 to 29. The season has been a very successful one renewed interest being taken in the game. Lynn was handicapped by having several of its best players absent the team being weakened thereby. J. Barrett was the star batter having 28 to his credit. Bruce and Anderson bowled well but the fielding at times was rather poor.

FOOTBALL

Tigers 0; Reverses 0.

The Tigers and the Reverses of Lawrence played their third consecutive game on Saturday afternoon on the Athletic field and as usual a good hard fought game was the result. There was a large attendance of rooters of both teams and the interest in the contest was keen.

The Tigers played a strong fast game but the superior weight of the Lawrence team made it impossible to gain any great distances. On several individual plays however long distances were gained and in this manner they succeeded in gaining more yards than their opponents. The latter were strong on line plays but could not gain around the ends.

For the local team Burtt and Donahue put up the best game while Duschane and Nicholson did good work for the Reverses. The line-up:

The Tigers' Dance.

The second annual dance of the Tiger football club was held in the Town hall last Friday evening when a large number of friends of the young men enjoyed their hospitality for a few hours. The Columbia orchestra furnished delightful music for the dancing. The following were in charge of the affair: Floor director, Joseph Maguire; assistant floor director, William Donahue; aids, Timothy A. Hickey, Everett Lundgren, Frank Murphy, Walter Thompson, Charles Burtt, William Lyall, Herbert Callum, Moses Fraise, F. Matchmaker; committee of arrangements, Timothy A. Hickey, chairman, Joseph Maguire, William Donahue.

Trend of Civilization in All Lines From Week to Week

POLITICS and GOVERNMENT

General.

As Fairbanks Sizes It.

Senator Fairbanks, in his formal letter of acceptance, issued Sept. 21, declares that Roosevelt has kept his pledges faithfully; points with pride to the administration's record and its high service to humanity in foreign affairs; holds that history proves the vindication of the protective tariff theory, and commends the Republican party's Panama and Philippine policies, the antitrust legislation and sound money record. Mr. Fairbanks will make a 6,000 mile speaking tour through the west, on which he is expected to make about 100 speeches.

Parker's Campaign Courtesy.

A letter from Mr. Parker, the Democratic candidate, to the head of the Democratic committee's literary bureau was made public in which the compilers of the Democratic text book were cautioned to exclude any word "that reflects upon the personal honor and integrity of President Roosevelt." Referring to the statement in an editorial that the Republican text book had taken little care in that direction toward himself, Mr. Parker still insisted that there be "no rejoinder in kind or otherwise."

New York Democrats Harmonious.

For the first time in many years a Democratic state convention in New York has named a ticket and adopted a platform without factional embitterments. Through the personal influence of Judge Parker all factions finally favored the nomination of Justice D. Cady Herrick of Albany for governor, whose name was presented to the convention at Saratoga Sept. 21 by his hitherto political enemy, David B. Hill. It was conceded that Mr. Hill greatly increased his prestige as the state leader by thus sacrificing his personal preferences to secure party harmony. The opposition of Tammany to the candidacy of Grout caused Parker to interfere in favor of a compromise candidate. Francis Burton Harrison was named for lieutenant governor. The platform makes Governor Odell's personality the leading issue.

The Republican New York Sun's opposition to Governor Odell has been carried to the point of openly advocating the election of Herrick, while at the same time supporting Roosevelt for president. On the other hand, the Parkersite Evening Post will oppose Herrick on the ground of his being a political judge.

Campaign Notes.

The Republicans of New Hampshire have nominated John McLane for governor.

New Jersey Republicans in state convention named Edward C. Stokes for governor and favor the taxation of second class railroad property at local rates.

Ex-Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee charges that the Populists are working in the interest of the Republican candidates and using Republican money.

An Independent party has been organized in the city of Toledo, O., to oppose the existing political machine.

The Colorado Democratic convention has nominated ex-Governor Alva Adams for governor. The platform declares unequivocally for the eight hour day and for the "right of every man to earn his living unrestricted and untrammelled."

Executive.

President at the Capital.

President Roosevelt and family returned from their summer home at Oyster Bay, Sept. 23, to the executive mansion at Washington, traveling to Jersey City on the government yacht Sylph and thence by train.

Opening For Chinese Women.

United States Commissioner Staden at Portland, Ore., has decided that Chinese women who marry Chinese citizens may remain here. The case is that of Doe Gum Yip, a Chinese woman who was arrested on the charge of entering our borders. She was married after her arrest and thus escaped deportation.

Marriages in the Army.

Major General Corbin in a formal communication to the war department recommends that no army officer should enter the marriage relation without permission of the department and that as a necessary condition thereto his income after marriage should be sufficient to support himself and family. He expresses the belief that the married officer is less valuable if in marrying he has not exercised prudence.

General Corbin also favors the re-establishment of the canteen on the ground of temperance and discipline. He advocates colored men in the artilery or their transfer from the colored cavalry and infantry.

Government Opium Monopoly.

The commission appointed by Secretary Taft while he was governor of the Philippines has recommended to Governor Wright that the Philippine government shall provide for an immediate monopoly of the sale of opium throughout the islands. The commission finds that the use of opium is spreading among the natives and believes that the government sale is the best way to check the traffic. Congress will be asked to act.

Legal and Criminal.

To Unify Our Laws.

Commissioners from fifteen states met at St. Louis Sept. 22 to take steps for a codification of state laws so as to bring greater uniformity. E. A. Eaton was elected president.

Standard Oil Company Fined.

At Gallatin, Tenn., last week the Standard Oil company was found guilty of violating the state antitrust law. The company was fined $5,000 and the local agent $3,000. It is charged that the Standard Oil sent its agents into the state to bribe certain parties to countermand orders for oil from the Evansville Oil company. The case will be appealed.

Bryan to Get Trust Fund.

Counsel for Mrs. Philo S. Bennett has withdrawn suit pending against the probating of the Bennett will, and there will be no further opposition to Mr. and Mrs. Bryan receiving the $30,000 left to them by Mr. Bennett for educational purposes.

McLaurin Justifies Lynching.

United States Senator McLaurin of Mississippi as counsel for W. C. Eastland, on trial at Indianola for burning the negro Louis Holbert and his wife at the stake, made the plea Sept. 22 that the killing was justifiable and necessary in view of the riotous condition caused by the crimes of the two negroes. The Eastland killing resulted in the death of eight persons before the Holberts were captured in February last.

Criminal Notes.

At Brook Haven, Miss., where three white men were in jail for killing the negro List, Governor Vardaman sent a detachment of militia to prevent a release.

At Camilla, Ga., troops were ordered publicly to load their rifles and use them to protect a convicted negro murderer, Willford, from lynching.

Two men who robbed a saloon at Chadwick, Ill., shot and killed Mayor Bennett of Thompson, Ill., while resisting arrest.

The lynching of a white murderer occurred at McGelless Station, La., Sept. 18, when John Allison shot and killed Conductor Baldwin of the Iron Mountain railroad. Allison was hung by Baldwin's train crew.

The sending of troops to Baxter, Fla., after the Duncan-Altman feud had resulted in the killing of four and the wounding of six men, was followed by the surrender of twelve of the Altman faction.

Foreign.

Peter of Serbia Crowned.

Amid the thunder of saluting guns from the royal palace and the solemn ritual of the Greek church at Belgrade Sept. 21 Peter Karageorgievitch was crowned king of Serbia. There was no hitch in the coronation proceedings, and all signs of King Alexander's murder were apparently forgotten. Wearing the crown and regalia of his royal office, the king mounted his horse and rode through the crowded streets to the palace amid the cheering of the populace. There he ascended the throne and received homage.

Italian Socialist Uprising.

As a protest against the severity employed by the Italian government in repressing certain labor strikes the Socialist labor organizations at Rome, Naples, Genoa, Milan and many smaller places ordered a general strike, which went into effect Sept. 16, almost coincident with the birth of the heir to the throne. Many riotous collisions with the authorities occurred during the several ensuing days, and two classes of the reserves were called out to aid in preserving the peace. Owing to the rigid censorship of all dispatches relating to the strike it has been impossible to get accurate reports of what actually occurred. Several persons were killed and scores were wounded when troops charged a meeting of the workmen at Rome. In many places the strike assumed the character of a rebellion.

Contraband Protest Heeded.

The Russian government has agreed to regard foodstuffs and fuel as conditionally contraband pursuant to the protests made by the British and American governments. On this interpretation these articles are liable to confiscation only when consigned to blockaded ports or destined to the military or naval forces of an enemy. This concession was made by Russia in an oral communication made by Foreign Minister Lamsdorff to the British ambassador, and Russia's pride is saved by not publicly changing the original regulation. The new instructions reverse the judgment of the Vladivostok prize court.

Count Lamsdorff.

SCIENTIFIC

Biological Sex Control.

One of the most striking announcements before the international congress of arts and sciences at St. Louis last week was made by Professor Jacques Loeb of the University of California, who said, "Biologists are now sufficiently advanced in their science to be able to control the sex of newly formed cells, saying whether or not the newly generated body shall be male or female." Also Professor Coulter of Chicago said that cell protoplasm and cell life were influenced by the conditions and forces which exist around and are related to the cell.

House Always Facing Sun.

A physician and an architect at Paris have got their heads together in designing a house on a rotating platform, so as to bring any side into the sunlight or away from it at any time of day. The rotating shaft is hollow and may be used as an envelope for supply and waste pipes. A gas engine moves the platform and operates clockwork to enable the house to follow gradually the progress of the sun each day.

Arctic Relief Trip Fails.

W. S. Champ, in charge of the Zeigler relief expedition sent to search for the steamer America, returned to Tromso, Norway, Sept. 18, reporting his inability to reach the missing ship.

RELIGIOUS

Y. M. C. A. on the Isthmus.

The Young Men's Christian association has decided to send its secretary, J. T. Thompson, to establish associations in the cities of Panama and Colon, acting on the suggestion of Minister Barrett.

Dowie's Latest Commission.

John A. Dowie, the more or less eccentric head of the Christian Catholic church, entered upon a new role when before his flock of 7,000 at Zion City, Ill., he offered himself as the first apostle with power to forgive sin. He said this was the final step in the organization of the church as planned by Jesus Christ. In keeping with his announcement that the spirit of apostleship in humbleness this modern Elijah has renounced his antipathy to the press, which he admits has done much in the spreading of true religion.

British-Tibetan Treaty Angers Russia

The Russian government has lodged protest against the ratification of the new Tibetan treaty, claiming that Great Britain has broken faith by not keeping the treaty down to trade regulation. England answers that she promised this only on condition that Tibet offered no resistance. Russia's protest is merely to serve notice that she will reopen the case when her hands are free from the war with Japan.

Peking reports say the British treaty with Tibet binds the Tibetans to grant trading facilities, to demolish all the forts between the Indian frontier and Gyantse, to repair all dangerous passes on existing routes of travel, and also to pay an indemnity of 7,500,000 rupees ($2,400,000) in three annual payments. In addition the Tibetans agree not to sell, lease or mortgage any Tibetan territory without Great Britain's consent, and they agree not to permit any foreign power to be concerned in the administration of the government. To enforce this treaty British troops are to occupy the Chumbi valley.

A delayed dispatch from Lassa told of an important proclamation by the Chinese emperor in which the pro-British tashi lama is authorized to perform the spiritual duties and undertake the administrative responsibilities heretofore carried by the dalai lama, who fled from Tibet on the approach of the British mission. The tashi lama has been friendly to the British throughout. He is abbot of the large monastery of the western capital of Tibet.

Miss Whittaker, a prominent club woman of Savannah, Ga., tells how she was entirely cured of ovarian troubles by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I heartily recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a Uterine Tonic and Regulator. I suffered for four years with irregularities and Uterine troubles. No one but those who have experienced this dreadful agony can form any idea of the physical and mental misery those endure who are thus afflicted. Your Vegetable Compound cured me within three months. I was fully restored to health and strength, and now my periods are regular and painless. What a blessing it is to be able to obtain such a remedy when so many doctors fail to help you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is better than any doctor or medicine I ever had. Very truly yours, Miss EASY WHITTAKER, 604 39th St., W. Savannah, Ga. —$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women prove beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

GENERAL REGRET EXPRESSED.

Great regret is heard from all sides because of the unfortunate accident which befell Miss Anna Weil, the daughter of Mrs. George L. Weil and Master Earle Watts, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Watts, both living at 226 Main street, this town. A falling sign from the front of the Boston store building struck them late Saturday afternoon as they were emerging from the store. The parents have the sympathy of all and it is the hope of the entire community that they may both see an early and complete recovery. Miss Weil is a student at the Johnson High school.

VERY QUIETLY UNITED.

At the St. Paul's rectory recently Alfred Jensen of Stonington street was very quietly united in marriage with Miss Frances E. McAvoy of Cross street, Lawrence. Both are young and popularly known in a wide social circle. The knot was tied by the Rev. J. Usher Monro of St. Paul's church. The newly married couple will make their home in this town.

Mr. Jensen is employed at the factory of the Briggs & Allen company in Lawrence.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SARAH EMMETT.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Emmett who died on Wednesday morning at the home of her son, Joseph W. Emmett, at 124 Union street, was held from the home on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The services were attended by neighbors and friends who expressed regret at the demise of the lady, who had lived to the advanced age of 82 years, nine months and nine days.

The Rev. A. Justin Northrup, pastor of the Garden street Methodist church, Lawrence, officiated. Mourners were present at the funeral from Worcester, Lynn, Lawrence and North Andover. The remains rested peacefully in a fine casket of black broadcloth with trimmings of oxidized silver. The plate bore the simple inscription:

SARAH EMMETT, 1821-1904.

The burial took place in Bellevue cemetery in Lawrence. At the grave services were conducted by a delegation from Ruth Rebekah lodge, No. 2, according to the ritual of the order, the deceased being a member for many years.

The pall bearers were all grandsons of the deceased. They were: John Lee, Joseph Lee, George Lee, and James Wain, Jr., of Lawrence, John W. Wain of Lynn and Albert Emmett of North Andover.

About the casket were arranged a number of large and very handsome floral pieces received from the following: Pillow, with inscription "Mother," from James Wain and family of Lawrence; broken wreath and sickle on base from John W. Emmett and family of Worcester and Joseph W. Emmett and family of North Andover; basket from Mrs. Frank Lee and family of South Lawrence; sheaf of wheat, Mrs. Sarah Saitonstall and family of Lawrence; anchor on base from Ruth Rebekah lodge, No. 2; bouquet from Mrs. Greenwood and family of Lawrence and a spray from Mrs. John Beatty of North Andover.

HELD ANNUAL MEETING.

The North Andover Improvement association held its annual meeting on Monday evening in Stevens hall. The president, George E. Kunhardt presided. The following officers were elected: President, George E. Kunhardt; vice presidents, Hon. N. P. Frye and Harry R. Dow; secretary, Miss Annie L. Sargent; treasurer, Samuel F. Rockwell; executive committee, Mrs. William Sutton, Mrs. G. Alton Kunhardt, Mrs. Anna M. Grover, Rev. H. Usher Monro, Rev. James C. Poor and Sam. Leitch.

The special address for the evening was made by J. J. Coolidge, Jr., of Boston, in "Village Notes of the Past." The report of the last meeting read by Miss Sargent was accepted. The membership of the association now numbers 119.

The following report of the secretary and executive committee was accepted:

During the last year the executive committee has held six meetings, with an average attendance of 5-2-3, the largest number present at any meeting was eight, and the smallest four.

All the meetings as in former years, have through the kindness of the Davis and Furber Machine company, been held in their office.

At the first meeting, held November 13th, four sub-committees were chosen, as it was felt that the work of the society could be performed most effectively in that way. These committees were chosen:

On Commons—Harry R. Dow, Mrs. William Sutton, Mrs. Anna M. Grover, John O. Loring.

On Membership—Hon. N. P. Frye, Miss Annie L. Sargent, Rev. H. Usher Monro.

On Athletics—S. D. Stevens, James C. Poor, Samuel F. Rockwell, Ralph L. Wiggin, Herbert McQueston.

On Arbor Day—Rev. H. Usher Monro, Miss Annie E. Sanborn, and D. W. Carney.

These committees have done excellent work which we will report somewhat in detail.

Titcomb of Deo Date circle, Riverside; Mrs. Pratt of Courtouse circle of Andover; Miss Sara Stickney and Mrs. N. E. Ladd, representing inasmuch circle. Miss Walworth read the minutes of the May meeting of the league held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms, Haverhill, by invitation of Deo Date circle. An interesting report was given of the picnic at Canobie Lake, Sept. 14. Mrs. Titcomb, Mrs. Pratt and Mrs. Ladd were appointed to prepare a list of officers for the ensuing year, to be presented at the November meeting of the league, which will be held in Lawrence by invitation of the circle of Tightly church. Following the business session the ladies were invited to the dining-room, where a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Cobban, assisted by her sister, Miss Stickney. Only a brief session was left for social pleasure, the departing guests expressing their appreciation of the hospitality of the president.

SEN. BURNHAM AND MAGNATE

(From the New York Herald)
Sen. Burnham of New Hampshire is one of the most reticent men in Washington. In following up the clews of the sugar inquiry he spent considerable time among the reporters, taking notes and getting information. Sometimes he would be glued to the press table for hours after the sessions were over. This fact evidently annoyed one of the sugar kings.

"This pompous magnate" came up to the senator, not knowing what he was, and said: "Look here! I suppose you're one of those yellow dog reporters?" "Humph!" replied the senator.

"You're worse than the others, sticking here and writing long after the thing is over. Say, what are you reporting for?"

"Humph!" grunted the senator, going right on with his notes.

"I asked what you were writing there!" "Humph!" was the only reply as the man from New Hampshire turned one page and wrote rapidly on another.

"See here, you ill-bred yellow fellow!" went on the questioner. "Do you know who's talking to you? I'll find out who's your boss, and have you dismissed at once. Who do you represent?"

The senator turned around and looked at the millionaire clearly in the eye.

"I'm Sen. Burnham from New Hampshire," said he, calmly, "and I represent Uncle Sam. What about it?"

Letter to M. S. McCurdy.

Dear Sir: You are a teacher: here's one for your boys:

If the painting costs two or three times as much as the paint, and one paint goes twice as far as another, how much are those two paints worth?

If Devco is worth $1.50 or $1.75 a gallon, how much is the other one worth?

How much is a gallon of paint worth anyhow?

The answer is: Depends on the paint. The reason is: paint isn't always paint. There are true and false paints and short-measures.

How much is a short-measure gallon worth? How much is false paint worth? How much is Devco worth?

There are millions a year in the answer to this last one.

Yours truly,

F. W. DEVCO & CO.,

AT THE THEATRES

BRIGHTEST COMEDY OF THE SEASON—"THE OTHER GIRL" IS A REAL DELIGHT.

Charles Frohman's production of Augustus Thomas' latest play, "The Other Girl" which commenced a limited engagement Monday evening at the Park Theatre, has made one of the greatest laughing successes ever seen in Boston. This was no more than to be expected, as the play kept New York theatregoers in a roar the entire season last year, and proved such a big success that Charles Frohman continued its run at his three leading theatres there, the Criterion, Empire and Lyceum.

In "The Other Girl," Mr. Thomas introduces to the stage, a new and thoroughly refreshing character, that of a physical culturist, whose use of the slang that goes with the pugilistic profession equals any of the efforts of George Ade. This unique character is introduced into select society of New York's Fifth avenue, and the manner in which he upsets the upper strata by his unconventional manner of speech and actions, lead to the entanglements and

Mr. Lorimer is being assisted by a large staff of experts headed by Walter Clarke Bellows, his general stage director. The chorus of 100 voices is being rehearsed by Frederick Arundel and the ballet by Signor Agramonti of the La Scala Theatre, Milan. "The Shepherd King" will be the largest and most sumptuous production ever seen in Boston. It rivals "Ben-Hur" in its magnitude, while artistically the palm must be given to "The Shepherd King." Mr. Lorimer's engagement will be for six weeks, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday, and seats should be ordered in advance.

WILLIAM BRAMWELL IN "CAPTAIN BARRINGTON."

The dramatic event of the season seems likely to occur at the Colonial theatre, Lawrence, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6, 7, 8, when Henri Gressitt presents his great scenic production of "Captain Barrington," a new four act American play by Victor Mapes, with the handsome and talented actor, William Bramwell, as the star of an unusually large and excellent company. Mr. Bramwell has for the last three years played exclusively in New York where his remarkable versatility and talent were put to a severe test, in such roles as Macbeth, Romeo, John Storm in "The Christian," Iago, etc. In this play Mr. Bramwell plays the three principal roles, Fielding, a Continental officer; Barrington, a daredevil British captain, and General Washington. The stormy and picturesque period in which the action of the play transpires, gives exceptional opportunity for intensely exciting scenes and climaxes. During this engagement matinees will be given each day when best seats can be secured for 25 cents. The regular prices will prevail at night, 15, 25, 35, and 50 cents, no higher.

A DOCTOR'S CRIME.

Messrs. Mayer and Grashelm, announce with pleasure their new sensational melodrama in four acts "A Doctor's Crime." It is built around incidents and happenings of life in and around New York City. The play although sensational has been blended with such an amount of comedy and pathos, and in such true proportions that extremely sensational has been lost sight and simply flavors as an added spice, the management have spared no expense in the scenic production of the piece and if excellent dialogue, elaborate effects count for anything, "A Doctor's Crime," should attract large houses during their engagement in this city, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Oct. 4, 5, at the Colonial theatre, Lawrence. Matinees every day when best seats can be had for 25 cents. Popular prices at night.

the merriment. The story is clearly abreast of the times, reflecting a variety of characters peculiar to modern conditions and certain New York foibles are reflected with Mr. Thomas' well known satirical wit.

Merry from end to end, keeping the audience in a continual laughter from start to finish, this latest girl on the stage promises to endeavor herself to New England theatregoers as has no other, and unquestionably the Park Theatre will be crowded during the run of this piece as it deserves to be.

Wright Lorimer and his company of over two hundred people, who are to appear at the Majestic Theatre on Monday evening, Oct. 3rd, in "The Shepherd King," are busily engaged with rehearsals in Boston, using the stages of both the Majestic and Globe Theatres.

Young Sorreltop—Then you utterly cast me off, Esmeralda? Miss Esmeralda (with great gentleness)—Whg, no, Sylvester, but—but it would be so silly for a girl to say yes the first time. If—if you are of the same mind you might ask me again some day, you know.—Chicago Tribune.
